

Desoto Park Rules and Regulations

Welcome to Desoto Park, a Senior Adult Mobile Home Community. Our success has been due largely to the fine residents we have here at Desoto Park and their attitude of cooperation. All new residents are expected to cooperate in the same way and observe all the Park Rules and Regulations. Consideration and courtesy to others, plus cooperation in maintaining an attractive home will help maintain our high standards.

ACCEPTANCE

1. A prospective new resident must be considered by management to be desirable and compatible with other residents of the park and references may be required before admittance. All prospective residents must make verbal request for an interview at the Park office prior to occupancy of any mobile home. A background check may be conducted, in which case the prospective resident will be responsible for any cost incurred. At least one resident must be an adult of at least 55 years of age. Every resident must be interviewed, read the current Rules and Regulations aloud in the presence of the Park Manager and two DPHA Inc Board Members or Designee and signify agreement and intention to comply with all Rules and Regulations of the Park by signing such. The document, having been signed by the new resident(s), Park Manager and Board Members/Designee in attendance will be maintained in the Park Office. Every resident must be approved by Board of Directors or Designee, with input from the Park Manager, before the resident may occupy a home in the Park.

THE MOBILE HOME SITE

2. Lawns, patios, carports and surroundings must be kept well trimmed, clean, neat, and orderly. If necessary, the Management will clean up unsightly yards and bill the owner for the labor and costs involved. No blocks, building materials, broken furniture and appliances, debris or junk may be kept around homes.

3. Storage outside the home will be permitted only in approved utility rooms. A boat or boat trailer may be kept on the resident's lot only if under and within an approved carport and providing that it does not necessitate care parking out of the resident's drive. Large or unsightly vehicles of any type may not be kept on the residents lot. Guest's RVs, campers, and trailers must be parked in the designated areas.

4. Fold up or umbrella -type clothes line may be erected on any lot where adequate space exists providing that they are removed when not in use, and that the location of such clothes drying apparatus is approved by the Park management. The erection of drying lines on any lot in the park other than described above will not be permitted.

5. Electric and telephone lines are installed at each meter pedestal. Each resident will make his own application for service and will pay all bills rendered by the Utility Companies. The resident must check to ensure that park utilities meet the resident's specifications before moving in. Any change in utility service to meet the requirements of the resident will be done at the resident's expense. All utility connections must comply with all governing ordinances.

6. Residents are responsible for all utility lines from their homes to where they connect to the park lines. Park water line runs from main up to and including the shut-off valve providing water to each space. The resident home owner may operate the shut-off valve as needed. The sewer line from the main to the mobile home is the responsibility of the resident. Any stoppage or repairs are the responsibility of the resident. Grease, fat, coffee grounds and sanitary napkins must not be introduced into the sewer system.

7. No Fences are allowed. Fences interfere with mowing and are permitted only by written special exception.

8. Parking is permitted only in a resident's own driveway or in an area designated by management. Please do not infringe upon other resident's lots. No parking is allowed on the streets.

THE MOBILE HOME

9. Homes shall be attractively maintained by the residents and comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, and rules and regulations of the city, county, state and park, as from time to time amended.

10. All homes must be blocked and tied-down to comply with all government ordinances and carry liability insurance. Proof of insurance, i.e. copy of ins. declaration page, will be provided to management by resident and kept on file in Park Office.

11. All Hitches, fuel tanks, LP gas bottles and trash containers are to be removed or hidden from sight by thick plantings, skirting or buried in planter.

12. To maintain a clean, attractive appearance, the home should be painted as needed and washed annually, October – April.

12A. No -noise producing work (use of power tools, lawn mowers, hammering, etc.) on property on Sunday except for emergencies. Quiet work is permitted (car washing, watering, gardening/planting, etc.) On weekdays work is permitted 8am to 6pm in winter and 7 am to 6 pm May through October except grass mowing is permitted from 7 am to dusk.

12B. Before a used mobile home can be brought into the park, it must be newer than 10 years old, and must be approved by management. A fee may be charged based on travel distance to inspect subject mobile.

MOBILE HOME ACCESSORIES AND IMPROVEMENTS

13. Any additions or exterior improvements to the home must be approved, in writing, by the park manager, before any work begins. Any individual/company hired as fee for service must be licensed and insured with proof of such on file in the office before work begins. It is the responsibility of the resident to be certain the worker hired has been approved by management.

4. Fourth Offense is removal from the park.

55B. Legitimate complaints should always be reported to the park manager, but habitual complainers or agitators do not make a good neighbor and will not be tolerated.

56. Residents must maintain reasonable order and must not subject other to loud noises, obnoxious odors or abusive language. Please take special care to reduce noise and turn down TVs after 10 p.m.

57. No private yard sales, peddling or soliciting or operating any commercial enterprise is allowed in the park without prior consent of the management, provided, however, that such prohibition shall not be interpreted or applied to infringe upon those rights set forth in Section 723.054 (3) of the Florida Mobile Home Act.

58. Office hours are as posted on the office and may vary. Residents must notify the office when leaving their home for more than a one-week period. The park manager is not a delivery or messenger service. The manager should be asked to relay messages only in the event of an emergency when there are no other means available.

59. Emergencies - Our park manager is available over the weekends in emergencies only. Please try to report problems only during weekdays.

60. We ask the help of all the residents in policing and protecting the park. No matter what time of day or night, please report any suspicious behavior to the Sheriff's dept @ 863-402-7200 immediately upon noticing it. If you see anyone that is acting suspicious or causing a disturbance the way they are driving through the park, try to get their license number and description of the vehicle and call the sheriff. If we all work together, we may be able to prevent some problems from occurring. Notify the park manager during regular office hours if you have reported anything to the sheriff's dept.

EVICITION

61. D.P.H.A., Inc, or park manager, may evict a homeowner for any reason permitted in the Florida Mobile Home Act. In each case the D.P.H.A. Inc, or the park manager shall give the resident written notice which shall set forth the date of the termination and the grounds for such action, as provided for in the Florida Mobile Home Act.

Desoto Park Rules and Regulations

62. In case of a change in the use of land comprising the park or a portion thereof, residents may be evicted only upon one-year notice.

RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY

63. Recreation facilities are provided for use of residents and rules regarding each facility. i.e., laundry, recreation hall, shuffleboard, etc. are posted for your own safety and convenience in that respective area.

64. The D.P.H.A, Inc, and park manager shall not be liable for accident or injury to person or property through the resident's or guest's use of recreational facilities. Residents and guests avail themselves of these facilities at their own risk. Residents are responsible for damages caused by their family and guests.

65. Residents are responsible for complying with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations of the city, county and state. In case of fire to the resident's property, the resident is responsible and liable for any cost of repairs and clean-up of the lot and premises.

66. Neighborhood disputes are not the concern of the D.P.H.A, Inc., or park manager unless the community is involved. Personality conflicts are not under the purview of the D.P.H.A., Inc., and manager, Please respect your neighbor,

67. All persons who enter or live in the park do so at their own risk. The D.P.H.A., Inc., and manager of the park absolve themselves from all liability or responsibility pertaining to loss by accident, property damage, fire, theft, or any other cause whatsoever.

68. In case of war, hurricane, natural disaster, civil turmoil, severe economic upheaval or any other major problems that in their judgment severely affects the ability of D.P.H.A., Inc., to continue to deliver services, then they shall have the right to temporarily suspend or to discontinue certain services without being liable therefore. Residents would be expected to continue to pay regular rent, or removed their homes from the park. Certain utilities and amenities are owned by the D.P.H.A., Inc., and there is no guarantee they will work all the time or without interruption. Residents should expect some occasional inconvenience until repairs are made or the problem is solved.

TERMINATION AND ABANDONMENT

69. In case of abandonment or if a mobile home is substantially destroyed by fire or storm, and if the home owner shall fail to make timely payment of the two rent payments next falling due following the abandonment, fire or storm, and if the home owner is not in possession, the home owner shall be deemed conclusively to have surrendered and abandoned the property situated on the lot, and the D.P.H.A., Inc., shall be entitled to retake possession without liability to the home owner.

70. Removal of abandoned homes – in case of R.V.'s or homes that have been abandoned, and the homeowner or his successors dies, disappears or does not respond to registered mail, and the rent is in arrears, the D.P.H.A., Inc., at their discretion may with reasonable care remove the home to storage and re-rent the lot without liability to the homeowner or his successors.

EXCEPTIONS

71. These rules are for the convenience and benefit of all residents. Minor exceptions may be granted in situations when management feels accommodating the individual homeowner will not substantially interfere with the welfare of the park.

Example:

Parking on the grass in designated area when no other parking is available.

72. A special exception may be made to alleviate hardship, avoid unreasonable cost or losses in exceptional cases, or to promote the welfare of the park. The resident requesting the exception must do so in writing. Such an exception may be made by management, with majority vote of DPHA, Inc, Board of Directors.

Example:

Exceptions for handicapped individuals or persons needing extra care.

Rental Exceptions – When a resident of the park is ill, is gone and may not return, will suffer temporary economic hardship, cannot sell a unit for up to no more than one year to persons approved by the park management, a short rental with option to buy by a buyer who wished to seriously determine what living in the park is like might be considered. Special rental adjustments may be made where appropriate.

Recreation vehicles are in the park and the Florida Mobile Home Act does not necessarily apply. Installation, fees and certain exceptions to rules will apply.

Off Season R.V.'s – some rules, such as age of resident, may be waived or liberalized off season, May through December, when less people are in the park and in the opinion of the management that comfort, or tranquility of the remaining residents will not be compromised.

Special exceptions will be made or withdrawn with the intent of improving the living conditions in the park by meeting individual circumstances, without creating conditions that are detrimental to the park as a whole.

Special Exceptions will:

1. Be requested in writing
2. Be granted in writing
3. Be conditional with a limitation on rights
4. Specify length of time of applicability
5. Be signed by homeowner, Manager and a minimum of four (4) members of the DPHA, Inc. Board of Directors and kept on file in Park Office.
